

About Vino Voyage

At Vino Voyage, we believe that every bottle of wine tells a story, a journey of flavors, aromas, and experiences waiting to be discovered. Our passion for wine extends beyond the mere appreciation of its taste; it's about the exploration, the adventure of uncovering hidden gems from vineyards around the world. Whether its a Malbec from Argentina, a Chardonnay from California, or a Shiraz from Australia, we search the globe for the unique wines for you to enjoy - delivered right to your door!

Vino Voyage is a small team of dedicated oenophiles with a shared love for enjoying wines, celebrating craftsmanship, culture, and the wine community. Our journey begins in the vineyards, where we forge relationships with passionate winemakers who share our commitment to quality and authenticity.

While we love tasting and selecting wines, we are most excited to introduce you to your own wine journey, whether you are just beginning to explore the world of wine or a seasoned connoisseur.

Enjoy Our Wines

Wine is a social beverage and great wine should be accessible to all. That's why we strive to offer exceptional value without compromising on quality.

We curate a diverse selection of wines, each chosen to deliver a remarkable drinking experience for you and your guests. The wines we find are not just interesting and unique, they are also easy to drink & enjoy; whether sipping a glass of Sauvignon Blanc by the pool, enjoying a bold Cabernet with a roast dinner on a winter's evening, or celebrating a win with a glass of bubbles! All our wines are enjoyable to consume today.

Whether you're indulging in a new find or savoring an everyday favorite, we're committed to providing you with an unforgettable experience, one sip at a time.

Meet Bruce Cunningham

Bruce was born & raised in the Australian Alps; you might notice the accent! He spent years in Sydney and graduated from University of Adelaide in International Wine Marketing.

He moved to NYC in 1996 to start an import and production winery. As it grew, he relocated to California. Successful he sold that company but stayed involved in the industry. Today he is President & Founder of Vino Voyage. With wanderlust in his blood he now lives in Spain with his wife, son and daughter who enjoy exploring the world with him.
