PETER THOMAS ROTH
FINE JEWELRY

MODERN CLASSICS. TIMELESS ELEGANCE.

RIBBON AND REED

My original PETERTHOMASROTH fine jewelry design, Ribbon and Reed, was inspired by an ancient Roman architectural motif, beloved by Europeans and Americans alike, which I have interpreted in a modern classic array of precious 18K gold, sterling silver and gemstones.

A FIRST LOVE, A FAMILY ART

While PETER THOMAS ROTH skin care, hair care and beauty have been my passion and my grand parents history, fine jewelry has been my best-kept secret. After all, I practically grew up in my parent's jewelry workshop in Manhattan. Since 1939, my father, and later my mother, brought to life the designs of many of the renowned artists, celebrities and impresarios who would call on them. I learned by watching them firsthand, and throughout my life their inspiration and expertise have remained steadfast with me.

In my youth, I spent many days on Fifth Avenue in the opulence of one of New York's most prestigious museums. There, I volunteered in the Jewelry Reproduction Department, mastering the very art that my parents had practiced for decades. On Mondays when the museum was closed, I would wander the galleries like an explorer. It was there that the motif behind my Ribbon and Reed collection caught my eye for the very first time. Classic and elegant, it adorned a selection of the greatest masterpieces and objets d'arts as well as the details of some of the grandest rooms. For me it felt symbolic of luxury, power, romance and authority. Years later, I drew on its inspiration to create my timeless jewelry collection.

Please enjoy wearing, collecting and cherishing my Ribbon and Reed collection — modern classics that convey timeless elegance.

CERTIFICATE OF AUTHENTICITY

The PETERTHOMASROTH mark represents my whole hearted commitment to the creation of an exquisite piece of fine jewelry, crafted with meticulous attention to quality and design. Every original creation bears the hallmark PTR or PETERTHOMASROTH. This Certificate of Authenticity guarantees that you have received an authentic creation.

PRODUCT CARE

To preserve for future generations the exceptional craftsmanship and quality of the precious materials used to manufacture your PETERTHOMASROTH fine jewelry, I recommend that you regularly polish your jewelry with its original pouch or a microfiber cloth. After use, your jewelry is best kept in its original case with its Certificate of Authenticity & Record of Provenance.
